CHAT WITH CHARLES

I love chatting with my pal, Jill. Like most Lakelands, Jill loves parties. Let's chat with the little Jillet and see what she has to say about the recent Valentine party at High-Stone.

CHARLES: Jill, did you love the Valentine's Party?

JILL: I didn't get any chocolate hearts.

CHARLES: No, Jill, you know that dogs can't eat chocolate. But you did get lots of treats, didn't you?

JILL: Indeed! And I played and played. It was one of the best parties, ever.

CHARLES: What did you like best?

JILL: I loved the artist, Maren Phillips. She did great work, didn't she, Charles?

CHARLES: Yep, she's a true artiste! You can visit her web site at www.headlines-art.com

JILL: I will visit it. It's wonderful to have a personalized portrait . . . especially when you're as important as we are.

CHARLES: We're all important at High-Stone . . . that's why there are so many parties for us to attend . . . and so much attention. So, Jill, what did you think of the Maltese Madame?

JILL: You know, Charles, I turn to mush when it comes to designer apparel. Everyone loves the Maltese Madame . . . and does she ever have some gorgeous items. All girls need adorned collars and fancy clothes.

CHARLES: What, Jill?

JILL: It's true, Charles. You know how it works. You simple can't go out-on-the-town without head-turning apparel.

CHARLES: You're a lucky girl, Jill.

JILL: And you're a lucky guy, Charles. As the golden child, do you get first-choice of all the High-Stone treats?!

CHARLES: Oh, Jill, all dogs are equally spoiled at High-Stone . . . we're all treated to treats. That's what makes us all lucky dogs. See you at daycare.

SAY GOODBYE & HELLO

After years of excellent service, Lisa will be leaving High-Stone at the end of the month. Lisa takes with her an exceptional understanding and love of animals. Many of my friends have experienced Lisa's wonderful doggy massages. She will be missed, but we all wish her the best of luck in the future.

If you haven't already done so, say Hello and welcome two new staff members: Kay White and Cara Scaggs. As with all High-Stone staff, they are here for your convenience and assistance. Just tell them about any special needs of your best friend. We want your High-Stone experience to be the best possible for your pet.
